100 Black Men of America, Inc. Hosts Barbershop Forum in Dallas
Barbershop Tour to Addresses Urgent Topics in Black Community

Taking A Cut Out of Life is a traveling panel discussion designed to transcend generations by sharing the common experiences of African American males. African American leaders will discuss the issues of the community while sharing key strategies for moving toward a common ground through focused leadership in our homes and communities. The forum will conclude with Q&A and a call to action. Barbershop is Real Talk from Real People.

Dallas - On next Thursday, October 24, 2019, the 100 Black Men of America, Inc.'s signature event, the Barbershop Tour: Taking A Cut Out of Life will hold its community forum to tackle the tough issues facing African American communities at Friendship West Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas starting at 7pm.

Barbershop was standing room only in Las Vegas and Washington, DC. We expect a full house as we discuss the critical topics facing the African American community including: police brutality; mental health and wellness; financial freedom; education; and, leadership development. Visit our website www.100blackmen.org/barbershop-tour/ for registration and more information on our upcoming tour locations.

Barbershop Dallas panelist include: This is a FREE community event. Register now.
